

. Show that the "Procedure for Reading This Set of Books" that appears in the preface actually fails to be a genuine algorithm on three of our five counts! Also mention some differences in format between it and Algorithm E.

- Lack of definiteness: operations like "Interesting" are not well defined
- Lack of effectiveness: A person can read the book infinitely because there is no halting condition
- Lack of output: There is no result returned